

Symposium: Endangered Languages of Amazonia

Friday, February 16, 2007 (UTC 1.102)

- 9:00-10:15 Keynote: Gabas Jr. (Museu Paraense Emilio Goeldi, Belém, Brazil)
'Ideophones and evidentials in Karo (Tupi)'
- 10:15-10:30 Break
- 10:30-11:15 Lev Michael: 'Mood and Negation in Nanti (Kampa, Arawak)'
- 11:15-12:00 I-Wen Lai 'Conditionals and Counterfactuality in Iquito'
- 12-2:00 Lunch Break
- 2:00-3:15 Keynote: Mily Crevels (Radboud University, Nijmegen, The Netherlands)
'How a language without nominal number expresses plurality: The case of Itonama (isolate, Bolivia)'
- 3:15-3:30 Break
- 3:30-4:15 Taryne Hallett: Iquito
- 4:15-5:00 Pattie Epps 'Verb compounding and antigrammaticalization in Hup'

Saturday, February 17, 2007 (MEZ 1.120)

- 9:00-9:45 Chris Beier: Nanti
- 9:45-10:30 Cynthia Anderson: 'Hands, fingers, feet, and toes? Oh, brother. The numeral system in Iquito'
- 10:30-10:45 Break
- 10:45-11:30 Brianna Rauschuber: 'Language Loss in San Joaquin de Omaguas: A Field Report on Omagua'
- 11:30-12:45 Keynote: Spike Gildea (University of Oregon) (with Flávia Castro Alves) 'Nominative-Absolutive alignment in Cariban and Jê Description and reconstruction'

Sponsored by the Center for Indigenous Languages of Latin America and the Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies, College of Liberal Arts